Bandelier National Monument Hike to ancestral caves and homes.

Bathtub Brewing Of course children can't order a brew, but they have family outdoor seating. You may also bring in your own food (picnic) or purchase food next door at Rigobertos.

Bradbury Science Museum They have some toys for children.

Fuller Lodge Art Center Classes for children (must register)

Ice Rink Seasonal – Winter

Little Studio on the Mesa (WR) Walk-in and create a piece of art or souvenir to take home.

Los Alamos County Libraries Free games to play. They also have Internet and quiet rooms for adults who are working on-the-road.

Los Alamos County Parks & Trails Hiking trail locations.

Los Alamos Makers Coder Dojo coding classes.

Nature Center operated by the Pajarito Environmental Education Center Treehouse, sandbox, and activities for children. Also a good place to find an appropriate hike!

Los Alamos STEAM Lab They offer some drop-in times for children.

Pajarito Mountain Ski Area Seasonal – During the summer, they rent bikes and offer lift rides up, so that you may ride downhill!

Pet Pangaea Buy duck food here to feed the ducks at Ashley Pond.

Playgrounds Check out all of the playgrounds that we have in Los Alamos County!

SALA Movies, especially Saturday Morning Movies for kids!

Splash Pad (WR) Seasonal – Summer. Free (10 Sherwood Blvd)

Larry R Walkup Aquatic Center/Swimming Pool There is a special pool for children. They rent snowshoes. They also rent mini golf clubs for use at the East Park Playground.
